BULLETIN OF THE MONTH

Clean Milk Production
Farmers' Bulletin 2017

High-quality products are the basis of prosperity for the dairy industry. Described in this new bulletin are the factors needed in the production of milk in order to secure a wholesome product.

AGRICULTURAL INFORMATION BULLETINS

Conservation irrigation. Alen W. McCulloch and Wayne D. Criddle. Soil Conservation Service. 15 p., illus. (AB 8.) Price 10¢.

Whether you are a large irrigator or small, you will find the answers to many of your irrigation problems in this bulletin. They are based on the latest scientific information and the experience of irrigators who are now practicing conservation irrigation.

Rice preferences among household consumers. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. 101 p. (AB 15.) Price 30¢. FOR SALE ONLY.[1]

With a view to reducing surpluses of rice, efforts are being made to find larger outlets in the United States. It is the purpose of this consumer preference study to help rice growers and the rice industry to evaluate domestic consumption with a view to its possible expansion.

FARMERS' BULLETINS

Harvesting and handling citrus fruits in the Gulf States. J. R. Winston. Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering. 67 p., illus. (F 1763, rev.) Price 25¢.

A step-by-step description of the processing necessary in delivering citrus fruit in sound condition to consumers in distant States is given in this revision. Canned and other processed products also are discussed.

Ornamental woody vines for the southern Great Plains. E. W. Johnson. Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering. 22 p., illus. (F 2015.) Price 10¢.

This bulletin discusses the selection, planting, and care of woody vines, describes the various species that have been tested, and suggests their use in the southern Great Plains area.

MOTION PICTURES

The Motion Picture Service, Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, produces and distributes motion pictures on subjects with which the Department is concerned. They are both sound and silent and are released in 16-mm. and 35-mm. widths. Films in the 16-mm. size are available from State film libraries; 35-mm. films are available only from Motion Picture Service. They are lent to responsible agencies and persons or may be purchased outright. Prints of Department films may be obtained from 72 cooperating film libraries in the 48 States, and the Territories of Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

LIVESTOCK COOPERATIVES IN ACTION. 2 reels, 16 mm., sound, in color. Running time, 15 minutes. Released 1950. (Revision of MARKETING LIVESTOCK COOPERATIVELY.)

With the livestock industry as a backdrop, the film tells the story of the livestock cooperatives—how they began, how they function, and how they benefit members. It shows that large-scale cooperative marketing associations make available to producer-members a complete and balanced set of services including research, stocker and feeder service, credit, transportation, and marketing. (Not in Film Libraries; available from Farm Credit Administration offices; and for sale by United World Films, Inc., 1445 Park Ave., New York 29, N. Y.)
